CUYAHOGA COUNTY
CLERK OF COURTS

Case NO. DR 20 382383

JUDGE TONYA R. JONES

JUDGMENT ENTRY OF DIVORCE

(With Children)

(No Separation/ In-Court Agreement Attached)

This cause came on for hearing on November 18, 2021 and was duly heard before the Honorable Tonya R. Jones, Judge of the Domestic Relations Division of the Court of Common Pleas upon the:

Complaint of Plaintiff, pleadings and the evidence; Defendant, although duly served with process, according to law, and filing an Answer having effectively withdrawn as a participant by his own pleading.

Present at the hearing were: Allison Horner, Plaintiff;
Robert A. Marcis, II; Counsel for Plaintiff
Catherine Stark, witness called by Plaintiff

Defendant did not appear at final hearing, despite being duly served with Notice of said final hearing.

The Court finds that on several occasions Defendant by pleading and/or other written means informed the Court that Defendant would NOT appear nor participate in the final hearing on this matter. The Court further finds that Defendant, after informing the Court of his intention not to participate in these proceedings, failed to appear at several pretrials, the settlement conference, as well as the final pretrial of this matter, all of which were conducted by ZOOM and all which proper Notice of such was provided to Defendant.

The Court finds that Plaintiff was a resident of the State of Ohio for more than six (6) months immediately preceding the filing of the Complaint and that venue is proper in this county. The Court further finds that it has personal jurisdiction over Defendant. The Court further finds that all service and notice provisions have been satisfied according to law.

The Court finds that:

Neither Plaintiff nor Defendant is in the military service of the United States.

The parties were married as alleged and there are two (2) minor children of the marriage, to wit:

Full name and Date of Birth of each child:

[REDACTED] Horner (DOB: [REDACTED])
[REDACTED] Horner (DOB: [REDACTED])

The Court further finds that upon the evidence before the Court, including the testimony of witness(es) that Plaintiff has have established the cause of incompatibility and by reason thereof Plaintiff is entitled to a divorce.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that Plaintiff is hereby granted a divorce from Defendant and that the marriage contract heretofore existing between the parties is hereby dissolved. Each party shall hereinafter live separate and apart from the other and shall not interfere with the other's right to quiet enjoyment and peaceful living. Neither party shall molest, harass, disturb and or annoy the other in any manner, directly or indirectly, at home, place of employment or anywhere else.

DIVISION OF PROPERTY

The Court finds that the duration of the marriage is from August 20, 2011 until August 14, 2020.

Real Property

The Court finds that neither party has an ownership or leasehold interest in any real property.

Other Property and Debt

Upon the uncontested evidence before the Court, the Court finds the following:

On or about August 14, 2020, Defendant Husband permanently vacated the residence where the parties were residing. At such time, the parties divided marital funds from the parties' joint check account equally with each party retaining $\frac{1}{2}$ of said marital funds and depositing such into their own individual accounts (Wife - \$[REDACTED] and Husband -- \$[REDACTED]). Prior to the closing of the parties' joint accounts, Husband removed Wife's paycheck deposit and kept such funds for himself in the amount of \$1,205.58. All joint accounts were subsequently closed.

The parties received a 2019 State Tax Refund in the amount of $1,707.00. Per this Court's order during a January 7, 2021 zoom pretrial, these funds were properly deposited into the IOLTA account of Plaintiff's counsel. The entire amount ($1,707.00) has remained in Plaintiff's counsel's IOLTA account throughout the litigation of this matter, pending allocation of such funds by this Court.

The parties are due a 2019 Federal Tax Refund in the amount of $6,931.00. The funds or refund check, although allegedly issued by the IRS, has not been received by Plaintiff. Plaintiff is taking measures with the IRS to determine the status of said funds, whether said funds have been deposited by another party and/or to determine what steps are required to release said funds. Initial efforts to discover the whereabouts of the return require Defendant's participation. Defendant has refused to participate.

Plaintiff has further attempted to refile the parties' 2019 tax return due to clerical errors by the accountant handling the parties' taxes. Defendant's signature is again needed. Defendant has refused to participate. Any refund due has not been issued as of yet by the IRS. It is anticipated the refund including the original refund would then total $7,832.00 and that interest may be awarded as well.

The parties have filed separately for the tax year 2020.

The parties own several [REDACTED] Life Insurance Policies on the parties' lives ([REDACTED] Whole Life Legacy Hecv, Policy Number [REDACTED]; [REDACTED] Vantage Term, Policy Number [REDACTED]; [REDACTED] Whole Life Legacy Hecv, Policy Number [REDACTED]; [REDACTED] Vantage Term, Policy Number [REDACTED]) and on the minor child [REDACTED] Horner's life ([REDACTED] Whole Life Legacy Hecv, Policy Number [REDACTED]).

At the time of the parties' separation, Husband had in his possession a Hyundai Veloster automobile; Wife had and still has in her possession a Hyundai Elantra.

The parties previously identified certain personal property remaining at the residence where Plaintiff resides as Defendant's property. Said agreed to items are listed on Exhibit B attached hereto and incorporated herein. By agreement of the parties set forth by Court Order, said property was to be picked up by Defendant (through his agent(s)) on April 26, 2021. Defendant failed to pick up or otherwise remove his designated property as ordered by the Court on April 26, 2021.

Husband has not contributed any financial support to Wife and the minor children since vacating the martial residence on or about August 14, 2020.

Husband, through his counsel, agreed to limited visitation with his children by Zoom calls only. Subsequently, Husband, pro se, informed the Court that he would not participate in the Family Evaluation Services investigations and such investigations were terminated. Husband, pro se, further indicated to the Court at a pretrial of this matter that he no longer wanted to participate in Zoom "visitation" with his children.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that Plaintiff is hereby awarded the following items of personal property, free and clear from any claim by Defendant, free to retain or dispose of, subject to any indebtedness which the Plaintiff shall pay and from which the Plaintiff shall hold the Defendant harmless:

On the date chosen, Defendant's agent(s) shall be permitted to remove only those items listed on Exhibit B during the hours of 9am until 4pm, but shall keep Plaintiff's counsel informed of actual time being used to complete the removal. Defendant's agents shall not damage the garage or premises and shall not attempt to enter the home on the premises during their move. If Defendant does not give proper 10 day's notice by January 9, 2021 (and subsequently does not remove his personal property by January 19, 2021), ownership of the property listed on Exhibit B shall revert to Plaintiff and at that time Plaintiff shall be entitled to retain, sell and/or otherwise dispose of said property free and clear of any claim of Defendant.

Any funds from said return previously deposited or issued to anyone other than Plaintiff shall be immediately paid to Plaintiff in full.

The Court finds the parties have filed separately for the tax year 2020.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that each party shall pay their own respective taxes and penalties, if applicable, and each party shall receive and be the sole and separate owner of their respective tax refunds, if any for the tax year 2020.

Retirement Assets

The Court finds that neither Plaintiff nor Defendant has retirement assets earned during the marriage.

Equal/Equitable Property Division

The Court finds that the above division of property, though not equal, is equitable for the following reasons: After the parties separated, Defendant without mutual agreement, removed Plaintiff's paycheck from the parties' joint bank account; Defendant has failed to provide any financial support to Plaintiff and/or the minor children of the marriage; Plaintiff has been designated as the sole residential and legal custodian of the minor children; Defendant is in arrears on the temporary child support and cash medical support order; Defendant alleged in open court he cannot maintain employment at the present time due to his health leaving Plaintiff to provide for the children entirely on her own; Defendant has been designated as the child support obligee and insurance on his life is needed to insure said payment obligation of child support.

SPOUSAL SUPPORT

The Court finds, upon considering the factors set forth in Ohio Revised Code §3105.18(C)(1), as well as the division of property set forth herein, that spousal support is neither appropriate nor reasonable.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that neither party shall pay spousal support to the other party. The Court shall not retain jurisdiction to modify this order.

ALLOCATION OF PARENTAL RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

The Court shall not modify and/or enforce parenting orders on behalf of any parent who has not completed a court-approved parenting education program.

In determining the best interest of the children in allocating parental rights and responsibilities, the Court has considered all relevant factors, including but not limited to, the factors set forth in Ohio Revised Code §3109.04(F).

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that parental rights and responsibilities are allocated solely to Plaintiff who is hereby designated the residential parent and legal custodian of the minor children. Defendant shall not be allocated any visitation and/or contact with the minor children until such time as Defendant petitions the Court; Defendant complies with all Court requests upon said petition, including but not limited to: any and all court orders to participate with Family Evaluation Services (FES); and Defendant has provided the Court and/or FES sufficient evidence to demonstrate that Defendant is mentally and physically fit to have visitation and/or contact with the minor children.

A copy of any such notice filed with the Court shall be sent to the non-relocating party unless the box below is checked.

Failure of a party to comply with the order may be considered contempt of court.

Defendant shall pay the following expenses on behalf of the children:

CHILD(REN)'S HEALTH CARE

Extraordinary Medical Expenses

The Court finds that pursuant to Ohio Revised Code §3119.30(A), both parents are liable for the health care expenses of the child(ren) who is/are not covered by private health insurance.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the Plaintiff pay 71% and the Defendant pay 29% of the extraordinary medical expenses of the child(ren).

Private Health Insurance

The Court finds that Plaintiff has private health insurance available to cover the child(ren) through a group policy, contract or plan, which is accessible because:

Primary care services are within 30 miles of the child's residence.

The Court further finds that the cost (total out-of-pocket cost for family coverage) of the private health insurance available to Plaintiff does not exceed that parent's Health Insurance Maximum.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that Plaintiff is hereby designated as the health insurance obligor(s), and shall secure and maintain private health insurance for the child(ren) and shall hereafter by referred to as the health insurance obligor until further order of Court for the following reasons:
