This matter comes before the Court sua sponte. It has come to the Court's attention that Defendant William Easton Horner has made various communications with several Court personnel, including the Judge assigned to this matter. Specifically, Defendant has been emailing the Judge and county court personnel with his theories of the Court's collusion with the Director of the FBI, Sheriff's Department, and others. Respondent seems to be not of sound mind and a danger to the Court. The Administrative Judge Leslie Ann Celebrezze finds it is in the best interest of the safety of the Court to restrain Mr. Horner from entering and contacting the Court.

IT IS ORDERED, EFFECTIVE WITH THE FILING OF THIS ORDER, THAT DEFENDANT WILLIAM EASTON HORNER IS ENJOINED FROM COMMITTING ANY OF THE FOLLOWING ACTS:

1. Entering the premises of the Cuyahoga County Court of Common Pleas at 1 W. Lakeside Ave.
2. Threatening, assaulting, abusing, harassing, or interfering with the Cuyahoga County Court of Common Pleas personnel in any manner.
3. Emailing, contacting, or otherwise communicating with the Court, including its staff and employees, outside of any legal proceedings.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that all hearings for the above captioned case, and any other matter to which Defendant William Easton Horner is a party before this Court shall be conducted by remote videoconference technology, i.e., Zoom.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
